

Randy Irwin

Randy Irwin is a 20 year veteran of the music business. A native of Mercer Island, Irwin began his career at Seattle radio stations KLSY, KUBE and KPLZ. He moved into the record business with Sony Music in 1992, and gravitated upward from NW Regional Promotion Director through various positions, completing his tenure as VP Worldwide Marketing for Epic Records. Irwin worked with a diverse roster of artists while at Sony, including Celine Dion, Oasis, Travis, Shakira, Ginuwine, George Clinton, The Allman Brothers, moe., Vernon Reid, Charlotte Church and many others, as well as motion picture soundtracks. Currently residing in Lake Las Vegas, Nevada, Irwin is a business consultant to CDA, the management company of Celine Dion. He is married to Kim, with two young children, Jackson and Hayley.